THE ESNB VOLUNTEER APPLICATION FORM

INTRODUCTION

It is an obvious that everyone has the right to equal opportunities and protection regardless of their origin. Education provide protection and is the best possible tool to help vulnerable communities to access equal opportunities. We as the ESNB we use pioneering education as the means to achieve our organization goals in line with our core values.

The organization has not set criteria or qualification for volunteers to join our programmes but instead we are looking for people who can adapt quickly to a new and different environment and who enjoy using their initiative and taking on extensively responsibility. However, if there is an area of our work particularly interests you or suit your skills please highlight this in the application form so that we can tailor your volunteering placement accordingly. We can also discuss this in further detail once we have received your application.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- The ESNB will not share information in this application with any third party.
- Within their placement volunteers will not be expected to undertake any work that puts them or others under any undue risks. Volunteers must realize that by coming to a developing country they need to take special precautions for their own safety and in that context, volunteers will understand that the ESNB cannot take responsibility for the health or personal security of visitors. The ESNB cannot accept any liability for activities or omissions of any third-party providers.
- In making the application the volunteer will make full disclosure to the ESNB of all matters relating to health or legal issues (including immigration) that are relevant to a proper evaluation of the volunteer placement applied for.
- All expenses, including travel costs, visas, vaccinations and travel insurance will be met by the volunteer independently.
- Any operational costs of the work undertaken by the volunteer will be covered the ESNB. This may include an allowance for phone calls, transport and some cases refreshments for volunteers while they are carrying out the ESNB work.
- If accommodation is to be arranged for volunteer by the ESNB, the volunteer will be alerted of the conditions, costs and payments details in advance of their departure.
- ESNB reserves the right to cancel any volunteer placement at any point due to unforeseen circumstances. Any cost incurred notified to the ESNB by the redundant volunteer in advance of the cancellation will be refunded by the ESNB.
- Once accepted volunteers will receive the ESNB's Volunteer pack, including useful preparatory information including advice on travel, medical and packing.
- By making this application the ESNB assumes that you have read and accept the terms and conditions.
